4. RESTRICTIONS ON COMMUNICATION AND TRADING

A. Communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information

- (a) No Insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- (b) (i) No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any Insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
 - (ii) Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a "legitimate purpose" shall be considered an "insider" for purposes of these regulations and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such unpublished price sensitive information in compliance with these regulations.
- (c) Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a "legitimate purpose" shall be considered an "Insider" for purposes of this Code and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such unpublished price sensitive information in compliance with the Insider Trading Regulations.

- (d) An unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:
- (i) entail an obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company;
 - (ii) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations and subsequent amendments thereto but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being affected in such forms as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.
 - (iii) For the purpose of clause (d) above, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential except for the purpose mentioned in clause (d) above and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the company when in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.
- (e) A structured digital database shall be maintained containing the nature of unpublished price sensitive information and the names of such persons who shared the information and also name of such person with whom information is shared under this clause with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such database shall not be outsourced and shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non- tampering of the database.
- (f) The structured digital database shall be preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the SEBI regarding any investigation or enforcement proceeding, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings.
- (g) No Insider shall trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Trading by Insiders including promoters, non- individual Insiders when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information shall be governed by Regulation 4 of the Insider Trading Regulations.

B. Preservation of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information:

Insiders including Designated Persons shall maintain the confidentiality of all Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. Insiders including Designated Persons shall not pass on such information to any person directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for the purchase or sale of securities of the Company. Following practices should be followed in this regard:

- (a) Need to Know: Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company, where it is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations, and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of information.

To prevent the misuse of confidential information the Company adopts a 'Chinese Wall' policy thereby separating those areas of the Company which routinely have access to confidential information, considered as 'inside areas' from those areas which deal with sale / marketing / investment advice or other departments providing support services, considered as 'public areas'.

The employees in the inside areas shall not communicate any UPSI to any one in public area. Demarcation of various departments as 'inside area' may be implemented by the Compliance Officer, in consultation with the Chief Financial Officer of the Company.

In exceptional circumstances i.e. in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations, any Designated Person may be permitted to 'cross the wall' and give UPSI to any person on a 'need to know' basis, under intimation to the Compliance Officer.

- (b) Limited Access to Confidential Information: Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc. Files containing confidential information should be deleted / destroyed after its use. Shredder should be used for the destruction of physical files.

C. Trading Plans

- (a) An Insider shall be entitled to formulate a Trading Plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan. This gives an option to persons who may be perpetually in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and enabling them to trade in securities in a compliant manner
- (b) Such Trading Plan Shall:
- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the Insider earlier than 120 calendar days from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - (ii) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
 - (iii) clearly set out the following parameters for each trade to be executed:
 - (i) Either the value of trade or the number of securities to be traded
 - (ii) Nature of the trade, indicating whether it is a buy or sell transaction
 - (iii) Specific date or time period for the trade, which must not exceed five consecutive trading days; and
 - (iv) Price limit.*

* Introduction of a price limit under the trading plan: To enhance the transparency and precision of trading activities, the PIT Amendment Regulations introduces an option to disclose the upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade. This limit must be in the range of 20% of the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan. However, in cases where the price of the security falls outside the price limit, the trade cannot be executed. However price limited parameter is optional.

- (c) The Compliance Officer shall review the Trading Plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the Insider Trading Regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.
- (d) Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan
- (e) The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either any trade in the securities outside the scope of the Trading Plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law.

Provided that the implementation of the Trading Plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any UPSI and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation..

Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation 50[].

51[Provided further that if the insider has set a price limit for a trade under sub-clause (iv) of clause (v) of sub-regulation 2, the insider shall execute the trade only if the execution price of the security is within such limit. If price of the security is outside the price limit set by the insider, the trade shall not be executed.

- (f) The compliance officer shall approve or reject the trading plan within two trading days of receiving it and notify the approved trading plans to the stock exchanges on the day of approval.
- (g) The provisions regarding pre-clearance of trades, trading window norms and restrictions on Contra Trade shall not be applicable for a trade executed as per an approved Trading Plan.

Exceptions for non-implementation of the Trading Plan:

In the following exceptional situations the insiders are allowed to deviate from their trading plans:

- permanent incapacity
- bankruptcy
- operation of law.

In case non-implementation of trading plan, insider shall intimate the same to Compliance Officer within 2 trading days of end of tenure of the trading plan. The compliance officer, shall place such information along with his recommendation to accept or reject the submissions of the insider before the Audit Committee and committee shall decide whether such non-implementation was bona fide or not. The audit committee's decision will be promptly communicated by the compliance officer to the relevant stock exchanges on the same day. If the audit committee does not accept the insider's submissions, the compliance office will take actions as per the organization's code of conduct.
